Playing at the 'next level'

- You are motivated to both attend college and keep playing soccer.
- You are open minded about where and and at what level.
- You care about your academic performance in high school and how it will impact your college options.
- You are PROACTIVE and take the necessary steps.

proactive

The adjective proactive can describe a person who gets things done. If you are proactive, you make things happen, instead of waiting for them to happen to you.

NOT YET IN HIGH SCHOOL

- RELAX. You are not yet 'on the path.' Just enjoy playing soccer.
- 90% of college programs don't even start evaluating 95% of all youth soccer players until they are in their sophomore... or even junior years of high school.
- An example of an an exception would be a NCAA
   Division 1 program from a major national conference simply paying attention to which girls are on the U15

   Women's Youth National Team or a 13 year old on the verge of signing a professional contract.
- So... RELAX. But informing yourself about the years to come is wise.

FRESHMAN YEAR

- Concern yourself far more with your academics (grades) than catching the attention of a college coach.
- Create a free account on NCSA and FieldLevel.
- Create a 'top 20' list of colleges based as much on location and academic interests as soccer. This list should include schools from all levels (NCAA D1-D3, NAIA).
- A great resource to create this list is available via NCSA (MEN'S PROGRAMS)
- Email any college coaches of schools you are interested in who are attending tournament in which you play. Also fill out any recruiting forms on the school's websites. (MOST WILL NOT REPLY DUE TO RECRUITING RULES.)
- Consider attending 1 or 2 college ID camps.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

- Pare your 'top 20' list to a 'top 15' list and register as a 'prospective recruit' on the schools' athletic web sites.
- Create your Valor player profile on SportsRecruits (U16-U19 Premier players) and use the resources to the fullest extent.
- Email any college coaches of schools you are interested in who are attending a tournament in which you play. (MOST WILL NOT REPLY DUE TO RECRUITING RULES AND PRIORITIES ON OLDER CLASSES.)
- Attend 2 or 3 ID camps of schools you are most interested in if possible (ideally of different levels).
- Begin compiling video highlights from multiple matches (via Veo) and create a reel to post online.

JUNIOR YEAR

- Pare your 'top 15' list to a 'top 10' list and be sure to include schools whose coaches you know have watched you play.
- Email any college coaches of schools you are interested in who are attending tournament in which you play.
- Start communicating with programs via the messaging system via your SportsRecruits account (U16-U19 Premier).
- MOST COACHES ARE NOW ALLOWED TO REPLY AND MAY REACH OUT TO YOU. BUT FOR MOST, SIGNIFICANT COMMUNICATION DOESN'T START UNTIL SENIOR YEAR.
- Attend 2 or 3 ID camps of schools you are most interested in if possible (ideally of different levels).
- UPDATE your highlight video or create a new one from multiple recent matches and post online.

SENIOR YEAR

- Start the college application process and apply to any schools that have contacted you and you are interested in.
- Pare your 'top 10' list to a 'top 5' list and be sure to include or ADD schools whose coaches have expressed interest in you.
- Attend 1 or 2 ID camps of the specific schools you are interested in and have expressed interest in you.
- UPDATE your highlight video (or create a new one) from multiple matches and write emails to coaches on your 'top 5' list sharing the link to your video and any updates about your soccer achievements.
- Communication with any college coach of any level and in any form is allowed. If you have not decided on what school to attend you should be PROACTIVE and reach out to any program that is a legitimate possibility.
- Reply promptly to all those who contact you, even if it's a program that reaches out to you unexpectedly or one in which you don't have much interest.

Highlight Video Tips and Tricks

Highlight videos of yourself playing in multiple matches is the best way to showcase yourself if a coach has not seen you play in person! And you can update them on your progress after they have seen you play.

VALOR SOCCER PLAYER HIGHLIGHT VIDEO TIPS

Most college coaches themselves will tell you that it is very important for them to see a player perform IN PERSON multiple times in a competitive environment to fully evaluate if they would fit in their program and therefore should be recruited. But the reality is, due to time and budget constraints, that is usually a luxury. Therefore, the NEXT BEST way for a player to showcase his or her ability and for a college coach to analyze their potential is with VIDEO. Especially if a player is interested in a school out of their region, which makes it very difficult for that coach to see them play in person!

It should include clips from multiple matches and against quality opponents. Clips from just one match in which your team easily won and you were not truly challenged are easily noticed by college coaches. Ideally the video should include clips from at least four high level matches.

Keep the specific clips fairly short and put a lot of your best stuff up front. Trim the clip so that it shows the 'context' of your moment in the match and your contribution but not much else. There is no need to show thirty seconds of the team's play before and after your moment. Put a lot of your best stuff in the first 60 seconds to grab the coach' attention.

Use a variety of clips that show who you are as a player when on the ball, off the ball (in attack), defending and 'reading the game.' Yes, forwards should include the goals they have scored and have on video. Central

- Ideal length is between two and four minutes
- Show various skills including defending and movement off the ball
- Make it clear who you are in each clip with arrows or circles (if possible)
- Put your best clips at the front of the video
- Video that comes from an elevated angle (from stands or high tripod) are best
- Music is not necessary (copyrighted songs may result in video being 'shut down')

Contacting Coaches Ahead of Tournaments

Do NOT assume that just because a college program is listed as attending a given club tournament that a coach from that program will get anywhere near your team's matches!

Coach Guardiola:

My name is Diego Maradona and I am hoping that you can come watch me this weekend at the Portland Timbers Alliance Showcase, which I saw you or a member of your staff were possibly attending. I am very interested in Santa Clara University and I would greatly appreciate any time you could spend watching me and my team play. My team is Hand of God FC. My jersey number is 10 and I normally play attacking midfield or center forward. Here is my team's schedule:

Saturday (7/15) - 3:30 pm vs Rainier Valley Slammers - PCC Rock Creek #1
Sunday (7/16) - 11:20 am vs UBC Junior Heat - PCC Rock Creek #1
Monday (7/17) - 1:10 pm vs Highline Premier Heat - Tualatin Hills Rec Center #2

Thank you for your time. I hope you can come see me play! Sincerely,

EMAIL IN ADVANCE OF EVEN

LETTING A COLLEGE COACH AND PROGRAM KNOW ABOUT YOUR INVOLVEMENT IN A TOURNAMENT (OR EVEN LEAGUE MATCH)...

Do NOT assume that just because a college program is listed as attending a given club tournament that a coach from that program will get anywhere near your team's matches! It is very important that you reach out IN ADVANCE of your participation in a tournament and let that program, know of your team's specific schedule. It is also a good idea, if you get a specific response from a college coach regarding their attendance at a given match, to let your coach know. This will help your coach do their best to make sure you get ample playing time in that specific match and in the right position.

HERE IS AN EXAMPLE OF AN EMAIL THAT A PLAYER SHOULD SEND TO A COLLEGE PROGRAM IN ADVANCE OF AN EVENT:

Coach Guardiola

My name is Diego Maradona and I am hoping that you can come watch me this weekend at the Portland Timbers Alliance Showcase, which I saw you or a member of your staff were possibly attending.

I am very interested in Santa Clara University and I would greatly appreciate any time you or an assistant coach could spend watching me and my team play. If you can and have a specific match in mind, please let me know.

My team is Hand of God FC. My jersey number is 10 and I normally play attacking midfield or center forward.

My team's schedule for this tournament is as follows:

The Value and Variety of 'ID Camps'

TYPES OF CAMPS

SPECIFIC COLLEGE - Hosted by a single school and only that school has coaching staff members in attendance.

MULTI-COLLEGE - Hosted by a youth soccer club, select program or specific college with attendance by coaches from multiple programs.

COMBINE - Camps run by an external company (many times for profit) that hire college coaches (usually paid for their time) to attend.

College ID camps can be expensive and vary in terms of value for the attending player. CHOOSE WISELY.

ADVICE - Only attend SPECIFIC COLLEGE camps run by schools that you are definitely interested in for both soccer and academic offerings. The higher the level, the lower the chances of being identified and ultimately offered a spot in the program.

MULTI-COLLEGE camps are usually the most valuable, as long as list of schools in attendance include more than one that you are interested in.

COMBINES are often the most expensive but can expose a player to the highest number of programs over the course of a single event.

Some can be too big to be of maximal value.
